

Children Grieve Too!

Hospice of San Joaquin offers grief support groups for children in grades K – 6th periodically throughout the year. A day camp is offered in the fall. Children will have an opportunity to explore their feelings through a variety of mediums such as art, music, journaling, games, and storytelling. Groups are led by a Hospice of San Joaquin Bereavement staff member with assistance from trained Bereavement Volunteers.

Bereavement programs for children are offered free to the community, however, pre-registration is required and space is limited.

Please call the Bereavement Coordinator at 209-957-3888 for more information.

Hospice of San Joaquin is a not-for-profit organization providing medical and compassionate care, counseling and support to terminally ill patients and their families, regardless of ability to pay, and to educate and collaborate with health care providers and the public in promoting quality end-of-life care.

Kids' Korner

Kids' Korner is a special little "kornor of the world" where grieving kids can share, heal, and grow in a safe, supportive atmosphere with their peers. Kids don't grieve as adults grieve. They grieve in unique ways and in small doses. Kids are eager to come together with their peers and have the freedom to share openly without hurting the feelings of their family members. They feel safe in a group where they understand that they will not be judged and where others can share their pain and frustration when a loved one dies.

Kids' Korner is open to all children who are in first grade through sixth grade who have experienced the death of a loved one within the past two years.

Children will meet every other Saturday from 9am—11am for four sessions either in the Winter or the Spring.

Kids' Korner is held at the Hospice of San Joaquin campus in Stockton.

Due to generous grants from The Schwemley Foundation, Tip Your Heart Foundation, HCE Foundation, Independent Order of Foresters, SJ #567 and United Way Community Councils, Hospice of San Joaquin is offering Kids' Korner to the community at no charge.
